You don't have to make much of an effort to find off the wall television programs. One I stumbled across is, "I Was Prey." The premise for the show is true stories about people being stalked by animals. The victims talk about the fear and danger they experienced because the animals considered them prey. I don't recommend the show for good, wholesome, family viewing, but I did find it interesting to hear people's stories of survival.

As I watched the show I thought about how being prey doesn't necessarily mean our being stalked by a wild animal. Each day we can potentially fall victim to any number of things that prev on our time, our health, and even our spiritual well-being.

One of the worst predators we confront is worry. Worry attacks us mentally, emotionally, and physically; sometimes to the point that we are barely able to function. No one can escape worry. The best thing we can hope for is to keep it from controlling our lives and avoid living each day in fear.

People are worried. Justifiably so. We can see it on their faces. We can hear it in their voices. It's beginning to wear on us. Many of us are on edge. We're at odds with each other. We are doing our best to keep from falling prey to worry; but it is tracking us down.

My sermon this coming Sunday is on overcoming fears and the worry that comes with it. I wish I could ease your worries by telling you that the pandemic will end soon; that social unrest is going to be resolved; that unemployment and underemployment are going to trend steadily downward. I wish I could tell you that we have nothing to worry about. But I can't.

What I can tell you is that God is bigger than our worries; that Christ is with us; and that the Holy Spirt will guide and comfort us in any storm. I invite you to claim the words of Philippians 4:6 - "Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need and thank him for all he has done."

There are going to be times in our lives when we feel like prey. Pray. God will hear and answer our prayers; God will give us the courage to face each day unafraid.

Stay safe, be smart, and remain strong in your faith! I look forward to being with you in-person and online as we worship together this Sunday. Have a great weekend!

Blessings,

Tom

Disciple 1: Bible Study

Make the most of this "new normal" we find ourselves in. Sign up for the popular Disciple Bible Study 1, taught on zoom this academic year, and increase your knowledge and understanding of God's Word. Learn from short videos by talented Seminary professors, reading and dynamic class discussions. Group members form lasting bonds that outlive the course by many years.

The study gives the Old and New Testaments equal time, emphasizing the wholeness of the Bible as a revelation of God. Each lesson, with a weekly theme, reveals a new aspect to what it means to be a true disciple of Jesus Christ.

The Zoom study will start on Wednesday, September 9, from 4-6 pm and will continue each Wednesday thereafter for 33 weeks (breaking for about a month for Christmas). Zoe Hicks will facilitate the study.

To sign up, call the church office and order your book. 912.638.3317.

~ SUNDAY, AUGUST 9, 2020 ~

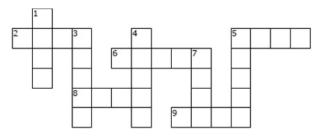

Last week we saw Jesus and his disciples feeding a HUGE crowd of people. After the crowds left, the disciples went out in the boat and Jesus joined them later (he needed some quiet time alone) by walking on the water.

What would you do if you saw someone walking on water? What disciple wanted to walk on the water too?

Read the story in Matthew, chapter14, verses 22-33

Look it up in the Bible! ~Jesus walks on water ~
