Enduring Peace

On Friday, November 11, our country will celebrate and remember our veterans. I hope you will take the opportunity this weekend to tell a veteran how grateful you are for his or her service. Share with them how thankful you are for the sacrifices they and their families made and are making to help maintain our security and freedom.

Veteran’s Day was established in 1954 by President Dwight Eisenhower. He called on the nation to remember the sacrifices of those who fought in our nation’s wars, to celebrate the contributions of all veterans of military service, and to rededicate ourselves to the task of promoting an enduring peace.

Enduring peace – is it even a remote possibility? It’s sad to say, but more than likely not. The world is torn by division and hatred. War and threats of war are consistently frontpage news. Our only real hope of enduring peace among nations and their people is in the day when all creation is restored to the glory of God and God establishes his Kingdom of peace.

Peace in the world seems far removed but what about you and me? Is enduring peace possible in us? Yes, it is! From the moment we accept the grace offered to us in Jesus Christ, we will experience peace in our individual hearts and worlds - a peace that this world cannot give.

As we take the time this weekend to remember and express our gratitude to our veterans, may we claim the commission to serve as ambassadors of the peace that is ours in Jesus Christ. Let us never lose hope that one day God’s peace will prevail. Lord, let it be!

Blessings,
Tom
