Care-Free

Do you remember a time when you were younger, and everything was about having fun? When your schedule consisted of school and play? When the most “stressful” part of your life was your upcoming math test? When you were care-free?

I have been lucky enough to get to relive this part of my life every time I sit down with the youth. They consistently humble and entertain me with their stories of what is most important to them. It almost makes me miss middle school...almost.

What they don’t know is that every time I get the chance to have a conversation with them, they teach me something new about my faith. See, when I first came onto staff here at SSUMC, I told Tom that I wanted to help the youth never let go of their child-like faith. But these teens have gone further than I could’ve imagined and taught me how to not let go of mine.

In all the little moments, from laughing with CJ and Sierra, singing with Croft and Stiles, having girl talk with Ava and June, and even in the quiet, serious moments with all the members of the youth, I am reminded of how fortunate I am to be reminded daily of how God shows himself through the younger generations. How lucky we are to serve a joyful and loving God.

There’s a verse in Ecclesiastes 3 that says, “(there’s) a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance”. I think the time to laugh and the time to dance is now. What are you waiting for? Sing, dance, be a kid again!

Let go of the stress (or the adulting, as I like to call it), and let God. He will provide.

Peace and blessings,

Justis

Weekly Bible Reading Highlights – Feb. 10-16

What did you highlight in your Bible last week? A few of the verses that stood out for Tom were:

Exodus 32:4 – Then Aaron took the gold, melted it down, and molded it into the shape of a calf. When the people saw it, they exclaimed, “O Israel, these are the gods who brought you out of the land of Egypt!”

Exodus 32:19 – Moses saw the calf and the dancing, and he burned with anger. He threw the stone tablets to the ground, smashing them at the foot of the mountain.

Exodus 34:9 – And Moses said, “O Lord, if it is true that I have found favor with you, then please travel with us. Yes, this is stubborn and rebellious people, but please forgive our iniquity and our sins. Claim us as your own special people.”

Exodus 35:21 – All whose hearts were stirred and whose spirits were moved came and brought their sacred offerings to the Lord.

Exodus 36:5 – They went to Moses and reported, “The people have given more than enough materials to complete the job the Lord has commanded us to do!”

Exodus 39: 32 – And so at last the Tabernacle was finished. The Israelites had done everything just as the Lord had commanded Moses.
